

Lester Aldridge and Smith & Williamson Webinar for Charity Trustees

Lester Aldridge is jointly holding a webinar with Smith & Williamson business advisers, for charity trustees to help them plan for the year ahead.

Following a very challenging 2020, it is clear that demand for all charity services will continue to rise and the expectations on charity trustees will continue to increase.

The webinar on Tuesday 23 February 5 – 6.30 pm will be presented over Zoom by Lester Aldridge partners Geoff Trobridge and Melia Hirst along with Head of Advisory Consulting, Greg Palfrey, from Smith & Williamson. The presentation will cover:

- How trustees' duties are currently being interpreted by the Charity Commission and the legal responsibilities of trustees.
- How trustees should apply their responsibilities, particularly in planning the year ahead.

This webinar will conclude with a Q&A session with our panel of experts.

For more information and to book your free place on the webinar, click here.