

Lester Aldridge Announces New Head of Family Team

Leading regional law firm Lester Aldridge LLP is delighted to announce that Partner Rosemary Sharp has been appointed to lead the firm's Family Team covering its practices in Bournemouth, Southampton and London.

Rosemary joined the Family Team in 2017 from Wilsons Solicitors in Salisbury and advises on all aspects of family law. In addition, Rosie's practice includes specialisms in business and complex income arrangements, pensions, farming assets, armed forces personnel, landed estates and trusts. She also regularly advises on wealth protection issues such as prenuptial and postnuptial agreements. As a first class lawyer her practice compliments Jane Porter's who, after 21 years at Lester Aldridge, has recently retired from the partnership to be a Consultant to the team.

Managing Partner, Matthew Barrow says, "We are very pleased that Rosie has agreed to take over the helm from Jane and are confident that with her expertise, drive and energy she will continue to build on the team's solid reputation which has developed over the years under Jane's leadership. Jane who is also an Accredited Mediator and Arbitrator will continue to work with the team as a Consultant".

If you want to read more about LA's Family Team, click here or get in touch by calling 01202 786153 or email online.enquiries@la-law.com.