Healthcare Partner Highly Commended at Awards

Laura Guntrip, Partner and Head of Healthcare at Lester Aldridge, has been highly commended in The Outstanding Partner Award category at The Women Achieving Greatness in Social Care Awards (WAGs).

The Women Achieving Greatness in Social Care Awards took place on 30th November in London. They celebrate the incredible achievements of female leaders in all roles and from all corners of the sector and create a platform to support rising stars and future leaders.

The Outstanding Partner Award recognises exceptional women dedicated to providing quality products/and or services in social care. The winners were decided by a panel of independent judges who were looking for a proven track record in quality, innovation and partnership work which have had positive outcomes for the customer.

Laura advises providers of adult care homes, nursing homes, supported living facilities, independent hospitals, children's homes and schools, throughout England and Wales, on various issues. She regularly represents clients in challenging inspection reports and defending enforcement action by regulators such as CQC, CIW or Ofsted.
