

Laura Guntrip Named as HealthInvestor Power List 2024 Finalist

Lester Aldridge is delighted to announce that Laura Guntrip, Partner and Head of our Health & Social Care team, has been shortlisted in the Legal Advisor of the Year category at the prestigious HealthInvestor Power List 2024.

The HealthInvestor Power List celebrates individuals and organisations driving excellence and innovation in the healthcare sector. Laura's nomination recognises her exceptional contributions as a trusted legal advisor to care providers, her expertise in regulatory compliance, and her commitment to supporting high health and social care standards across the UK.

With over 16 years of experience, Laura has become a respected figure in the social care sector. She provides critical legal and regulatory support to care providers, helping them navigate complex challenges and deliver safe, high-quality care. Her work includes representing clients in relation to CQC inspections and enforcement action, Coroner's Inquests, safeguarding matters, and offering practical guidance to keep services on track. Laura also has extensive experience of undertaking regulatory due diligence in respect of sales and acquisitions of large groups of care services for both adults and children.

The awards ceremony will take place on 3 December 2024 at the London Marriott, where winners will be celebrated for their outstanding achievements and contributions to the healthcare sector.

Congratulations, Laura, on this well-deserved recognition, and we wish you the very best of luck for the event!
