

Lester Aldridge supports International Internships

Three students from German law firm Ahlers & Vogel have joined Lester Aldridge for a two week internship as the law firm's 30th birthday celebrations begin.

Lisa-Alice Christens, Lara Doscher, Fiona Offermann are spending two weeks with the largest south coast firm, working with their top tier Corporate and Commercial team, LA Marine and International Private Client team amongst others.

The placement, which is an essential part of training for the three students who are Legal Assistants at Ahlers & Vogel in Germany, was organised by Head of the Corporate and Commercial team at Lester Aldridge, Grant Esterhuizen through his MSI Global Alliance contact Othmar K. Traber.

MSI Global Alliance is one of the world's leading international associations of over 250 independent legal and accountancy firms in more than 100 countries which supports the firms existing international portfolio. Lester Aldridge has been a member associated with this network for many years.

Grant Esterhuizen, Head of Corporate & Commercial at Lester Aldridge, comments "This is a hugely exciting initiative for Lester Aldridge and we are honoured to take part in the training of these individuals with our German colleagues at Ahlers and Vogel. We hope this will be the start of many more opportunities in the future."
