Lester Aldridge Expands London Property Team

Lester Aldridge is delighted to announce the expansion of their residential property team in London with the arrival of a new solicitor.

Solicitor Neeti Chauhan brings to the firm experience from a top 30 city law firm, where she previously worked alongside current Lester Aldridge partners John Townsend, Doug Irvine and Andrew Slatter.

Neeti said: "I am thrilled to be joining the Residential Property team at Lester Aldridge and re-joining my former colleagues John, Doug and Andrew. I look forward to assisting them in further developing and strengthening what is already a first-class legal team."

Since joining Lester Aldridge in May 2019, the London property team has grown from strength to strength and is now expanding in response to client needs.

The team offers their clients city firm expertise, along with an integrated solution for all their legal needs, offering access to the wider Private Wealth team, with experts in family law, tax, trusts, wills, probate and estate administration.

John Townsend, Head of Residential Property at Lester Aldridge, commented: "I am pleased to welcome Neeti to the firm. These appointments strengthen our experienced Residential Property team and enable us to continue to offer a high-quality level of service to our clients."
