

Lester Aldridge Expands Property Team

Lester Aldridge, Dorset's largest law firm, is pleased to announce the expansion of its Residential Property & Conveyancing team in Bournemouth with two new lawyers.

Associate Natasha Mallett deals with all aspects of residential conveyancing for individuals and companies including freehold and leasehold sales and purchases, remortgages, new build properties, help to buy and equity release mortgages.

Solicitor Rebecca Shaw primarily acts for private individuals on residential property sales and purchases and remortgages, both locally and across the UK.

The Lester Aldridge Residential Property team, based in London & Bournemouth, has received multiple 5-star Trustpilot reviews from clients across the country they have assisted with their property transactions.

Stephanie Adams, Partner in the team, comments: "I am delighted to welcome Natasha and Rebecca to our team in Bournemouth. Their experience and commitment to providing a quality service ensures we can continue to make our clients' property transactions as smooth and stress-free as possible."