Lester Aldridge Welcomes New Real Estate Associate

Lester Aldridge is pleased to welcome Ashleigh Lydford, who has joined the firm's Real Estate team as an Associate.

Ashleigh is an experienced real estate solicitor who deals with all aspects of land development and commercial property matters. She acts for several local developers who regularly return to her and recommend her.

Before joining the firm, Ashleigh worked as a partner in the conveyancing department of a local firm, where she developed extensive experience in all aspects of commercial and residential conveyancing.

Ashleigh joins the firm's Real Estate Development team based in Bournemouth. She commented on her arrival: "I am thrilled to join such a well-respected firm and very excited to be working alongside some of the very best lawyers in the region."

Mark Benham, Head of Real Estate at Lester Aldridge, said: "I am delighted to welcome Ashleigh to our growing team. She brings with her wealth of experience and knowledge that I have no doubt will benefit our clients."

LA's extensive Real Estate team comprises experienced commercial property solicitors across three offices in Bournemouth, London and Southampton. It includes recognised specialists in planning and environmental matters, development, construction and engineering, portfolio management, property litigation and real estate finance. Find out more.
