Lester Aldridge Wins Property Law Firm of the Year for Second Consecutive Year

Leading law firm Lester Aldridge has once again been awarded the prestigious Property Law Firm of the Year title at the South Coast Property Awards 2024, marking their second consecutive win.

The South Coast Property Awards celebrate exceptional achievements, recognising individuals and organisations that significantly contribute to the growth and success of the region's property market. Showcasing agents, developers, planners, consultants, property lawyers, and dealmakers, the awards recognise the very best within the industry.

The firm's Real Estate team comprises highly skilled and experienced legal professionals with in-depth industry knowledge. This win reflects the team's expertise and dedication. Their ability to navigate complex legal landscapes, provide tailored solutions, and deliver exceptional client service has earned them widespread recognition.

Mark Benham, Head of Real Estate, accepted the award on behalf of the firm, stating, "Winning the award for two years in a row is a testament to how LA has become the legal adviser of choice for lenders, developers and investors in the south. We are investing heavily in our people to enable them to be the trusted advisors of the future for our clients."
