

New Associate Joins Lester Aldridge Real Estate Development Team

Lester Aldridge is pleased to welcome Shaun Webb to the firm's Real Estate Development team in Southampton as an Associate.

With over a decade of experience in the real estate sector, Shaun brings a wealth of expertise, particularly in residential development and strategic land, which he has specialised in since 2018. A Chartered Legal Executive (FCILEx), Shaun has worked with a broad range of clients, including national housebuilders, PLCs, private developers, and individuals, assisting them with land acquisitions, option agreements, conditional contracts, promotion agreements, overage agreements, and development agreements.

Shaun expressed his enthusiasm about joining the firm: "I am delighted to be joining such an established and recognised firm within the real estate industry, and I am excited to bring my land development and acquisition experience to the team."

Sam Wylie, Partner at Lester Aldridge, added: "We are thrilled to welcome Shaun to the team. His extensive experience in land development and strategic land acquisition will be a valuable asset as we continue to grow our Real Estate practice."

Shaun's arrival reinforces Lester Aldridge's commitment to providing expert legal services across all aspects of real estate development.