SRA Intervention: Lawbriefs Limited

What has happened to Lawbriefs Limited?

The Solicitors Regulation Authority has closed down the practice of Lawbriefs Solicitors, 39 Long Acre, London, England WC2E 9LG. This happened on the 3rd of October 2024. Lester Aldridge is helping the SRA with the closure.

What happens now?

Lawbriefs Limited can no longer act for its clients. If you were a client, you would need to find a new solicitor. You can find a list of solicitors in England and Wales on the Law Society's website.

What has happened to my file?

The files that were held at the offices of Lawbriefs Limited have been removed and are held by the Solicitors Regulation Authority. To find out how to recover your file, please see our Interventions page.

What has happened to the money Lawbriefs Limited was holding for me?

The bank accounts of Lawbriefs Limited have been frozen, and all monies which were held in those accounts have been transferred to the Solicitors Regulation Authority and are being held on behalf of clients. If you think the firm should have been holding money on your behalf, please see our SRA Interventions page.

How can I get more information?

You can contact our Interventions Team at 01202 786341 or by email at interventions@LA-Law.com. You can also find out more about this intervention on the SRA's website. Chris Evans is the appointed agent.
